

Week Commencing Monday 20th April 2020.

Welcome back to 'Home Learning' everybody! We hope you have had a fun and restful Easter and are fully recharged and ready to crack on with your school work. Over the coming weeks we plan to have a mini topic each week to keep us busy and learning. To go alongside the mini topic don't forget you have your Read Write Inc. work to complete as well as a daily page in your Schofield and Simms maths books. Remember we would love to see photos of you working and having fun at home. Please contact Mrs Cioffi on Mondays and Tuesdays and Mrs Parry on Wednesdays, Thursdays and Fridays via DoJo if you need our help with anything. We're here for you!

My Home

This week's mini topic:

Literacy	Numeracy	Topic/Creative	Physical
Poetry Read or listen to Halfway Down by A.A. Milne. Do you have a favourite place at home that you like to sit? Can you write your own poem about your favourite seating place or using your very best handwriting copy out A.A. Milne's poem. Write a story Write a story in your literacy book that is set in your home. Don't forget to add lots of details and describing words. Can you	In school we mainly follow the White Rose maths scheme. Year 1 this week should be looking at making doubles and equal groups. Year 2 this week should be looking at fractions and length. If you follow this link (no need to register) https://whiterosemaths.com/homelearning/ Select the relevant year group; select Summer Term - Week 1 (w/c 20 April) your child can	Topic Can you draw a birds-eye view of your house or bedroom?    Science What materials is your house made of? What can you find in your home that is made of wood, plastic, metal, glass, cardboard, fabric and paper?	Join Mrs Parry and Mrs Cioffi each day with Joe Wickes's workout. Live at 9:00am on his YouTube channel The Body Coach. While the weather is so good, don't forget all of the lovely P.E you could be doing outdoors. Make a den somewhere in your home or garden. start your story with a really 'WOW!' opening?

Diary

If you are writing a diary don't forget to keep up with your diary entries.

Reading a story

Have a look through your storybooks. Can you find any that are set in peoples or animals homes? Could you read a story aloud to your family or maybe over FaceTime to a grandparent or family member?

Read Write Inc.

We now have free access to lots of R.W.I e-books that are at the level that your child is currently reading. Follow this link and register to gain access watch a daily short tutorial video and use the 'Get the Activity' button to access some questions and activities. There's no need to print anything, they can use their squared maths book to record answers.

Log on to 123 maths

Log onto Time Tables Rockstars.

www.topmarks.co.uk is also a good website with some lovely maths games on.

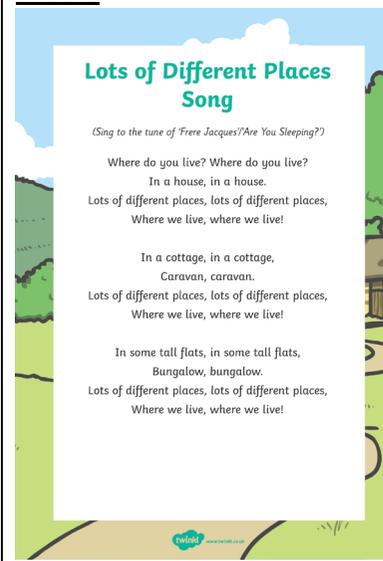

Art

Design and make a model of your home. Use recycling, Lego, play-dough (whatever you fancy).

PHSE/ICT

Can you research a type of home that is very different to yours, maybe in a different country? Can you draw and write about the home?

Music

Lots of Different Places Song

(Sing to the tune of 'Frere Jacques'/'Are You Sleeping?')

Where do you live? Where do you live?
In a house, in a house.
Lots of different places, lots of different places,
Where we live, where we live!

In a cottage, in a cottage,
Caravan, caravan.
Lots of different places, lots of different places,
Where we live, where we live!

In some tall flats, in some tall flats,
Bungalow, bungalow.
Lots of different places, lots of different places,
Where we live, where we live!

Tune into the Read Write Inc. live phonics lesson set 2 sounds, live at 10:00 a.m., set 3 sounds live at 10:30 a.m. on their YouTube channel. Follow the link from the school website homepage.

Handwriting –This week work through f to j. Can you record some simple words using the letters practised in handwriting your handwriting book.

Practise your spellings; remember your spelling test on Friday.
