

Nursery Home Learning - Friday 12th June 2020

Please choose one task or do all three. Remember you can listen to story time on Ruth Miskin youtube channel.

Literacy

Listen to the story 'The Queen's Knickers' written by Nicholas Allan.

The Queen is a very busy person, she has a huge wardrobe.

Can you design a special pair of knickers for The Queen's birthday?

Mathematics

Listen to Jack Hartman's number song to 20. Woohoo!

Let's celebrate with The Queen and bake her a cake or some special biscuits or help cook a birthday tea party.

Help an adult weigh the ingredients or help them set the table.

Expressive Arts and Design

The Queen has two birthdays because she is extra special.

One of her birthdays is tomorrow Saturday 13th June.

Can you make her a beautiful birthday card?

You can post it if you want to.

Music

Can you sing 'Happy Birthday' or find a birthday song to listen and dance to?

Maybe you could record yourself singing and dancing.
