Mrs Parry's Newsletter

Last Thursday I had the pleasure of accompanying our High Peak Kids Councillors, Lily and Annabelle, to the Houses of Parliament in London as part of a group of 30 children from the High Peak schools to witness The House of Lords and The House of Commons in session. It was a fascinating day and included a trip to the National Gallery and lunch in Trafalgar Square before a sleepy arrival back at Stockport station. Current Y5s, it's time to think about whether you would like to represent our school in this way next year.

Class A Adventuring at Whitehall

A fun and exciting day was had by all at Whitehall. The children took part in zip wiring, orienteering, caving and indoor climbing. The weather couldn't have been kinder and I've heard nothing but positive comments about the children's behaviour. What a fabulous way to display our RESPECT curriculum values of resilience, empathy, self-awareness, passion, excellence, communication and teamwork.

Please remember to let the PTFA know if you can help out at the Summer Fair on Friday 14th July. These events can only go ahead with your help and support.

Sports Day Tuesday 4th July

Save the date! We are planning to run our sports day event up on the Furness Vale field again this year from 1:00pm to 3:00pm. This year we have use of the new pavilion for the event, so we will have access to toilets. Stacey the Chair of our PTFA has kindly agreed to organise refreshments that will be on sale from the pavilion, with all profits going to support all the fabulous activities and experiences the PTFA help to provide for our children. We will keep our fingers crossed for fine weather and encourage you to bring your chairs and picnic blankets along on the day.

BEING ADVENTUROUS will run for 3 days Tues 30th until Thur 1st June.

There are lots of opportunities for woodcrafting skills, campfire cooking, nature art, den building, investigations, foraging and all the usual Forest School fun and games.

The booking website has all the info details of how to book on.
